"The donation for the construction of a temple and statues of the Buddha is immensely meritorious." Because this will enable future generations to pray, study, meditate, practice for term reach enlightenment. Those who practice in the temple will earn merits and term will reach enlightenment and those who have participated in the financing of this project will earn the same merits that practitioners themselves, for generations and generations, and more of incalculable deserve accumulated in the donation.»

"This is my offering to the Earth."
